PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Happy Easter!

We start the month with improvements to the bar. The club will be closed April 2-6 while our maintenance superheroes work on the walk-in cooler. We could use help from members in the second half of the month with repairs and painting the bar area. If you're available, contact Jon Shogren for times and additional details.

Silvia and the dance group will be traveling to the James Gibson Library (100 W. Lake Mead Parkway in Henderson) on April 7 to perform a German cooking and dance demonstration at noon. Your presence at the event will be much appreciated.

Entertainment will be offered every Saturday night this month, so make sure to check the calendar and Facebook for more information regarding meals and entertainers.

We will also have Maifest celebrations on May 12 and May 19. There will be dancing, German music from the Ginger Snaps, and food and drinks galore, so make sure to save the dates.

See you at the club!

Leanne Crabtree

Sign up for spring tournament

You've still got time to sign up for our spring tournament on Saturday, May 5. It will be a four-person scramble picked from a blind draw. We need plenty of A, B, C and D players.

Cost of the tournament is $50. We'll have lots of prizes awarded during our ceremony at the club following a great Cinco de Mayo dinner. Sign up at the club or text me at 7028061294.

On Nov. 3, we will be having our annual GASCON memorial tournament in Laughlin. We will be staying at the Edgewater Hotel and Casino, same as last year. We will meet on Friday, Nov. 2, and play the next day.

Last year we had an amazing turnout and expect the same this year. We will have fun activities and prizes for golfers and anyone who wants to join the party. Because of the size of the facility, we are limiting the turnout to the first 80 people to sign up. Sign up at the club or text me.

To make a reservation at the Edgewater, call and let them know you are with the German Club or GASCON. We get a discounted rate of $62 a night plus tax. We need 35 rooms to make the event work, so please, don't stay at any other hotel. See you on the course.

Sunshine report

Jerry Epps is in the hospital and not doing very well. All of us at the German-American Club wish him a speedy recovery. Also, we will have a memorial balloon sendoff for Stan Ruben at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 22.

Rita Taschner

A good crowd showed up for the club's St. Patrick's Day dinner with corned beef and cabbage cooked by Rita and Alwine and music from Melody and the River Cats.

Rita and Karin, above, serve up birthday cake at the German-American Club for Steve's mother, Florence, below, who celebrated her birthday at the club with Karin's mother, Ellie.

TIME CHANGE REMINDER FOR TUESDAYS JAZZ AND ENTERTAINMENT

"Class Act"

6-9PM

Big band jazz leader Jimmy Wilkins brings his New Life Orchestra back to the German-American Club from 1-4 p.m. Sunday, April 8, a chance for members and guests to catch one of the glowing embers of the trailblazing American jazz scene of the 1940s and '50s.

While not quite as famous as his older brother, Ernie, who died in 1999, Jimmy holds his own as a trombone player, music arranger and band leader as he approaches the century mark.

Jimmy joined the Count Basie Band as a trombonist in 1951, recommended by his friend and Basie's great alto saxophonist, Clark Terry.

Brother Ernie played tenor sax for the Count.

The 96-year-old musician lives in Henderson and carries on the legacy of icons such as Glenn Miller, Duke Ellington and Count Basie.

Marsha K, who leads Tuesday night jazz at the German-American Social Club of Nevada, has booked Wilkins and his New Life Orchestra at a number of venues around Las Vegas, including Black Label, McDonald Ranch and E String.

"I'm stimulated," Wilkins said in a 2009 interview with the Las Vegas Sun. "That's what music does for you. I used to joke and say, 'I'm going to be 100 years old and conducting an orchestra.'"

Admission to the concert is $12 for members, $15 for nonmembers.
