PRESIDENT'S LETTER

We've got a fun February planned, starting with our charity fundraiser for the Paralyzed Veterans of Nevada. We are expecting a large group on Saturday, Feb. 2. Make your reservations early.

The next day is our Super Bowl party. Sign up to bring a favorite dish for everyone to sample. It should be a close game this year.

Remember Valentine's Day at the club on Feb. 16. Silvia is preparing her schnitzel and Pat Kaanoi will be singing. Should be a great evening.

I want to thank Gene Hickman for stepping up to share his beef stroganoff dinner with us. This is Gene's first meal preparation as a cook on new cook night. Let's all show up and support him. Thanks Gene.

We continue to look for new cooks each month. If you would like to cook, let me know. We have lots of members to help you prepare.

Just a reminder we have secured a bus for the Feb. 24 cruise. It leaves the club at 6:30 a.m. To secure a seat, just pay me. It's $100 a person round trip.

Our new ATM is ready for use. We have kept the fees at $1 to benefit our members.

Don't forget our membership meeting and meet-and-greet this month.

See you at the club!

You'll know Silvia is cooking dinner when you can't find an empty spot in the club parking lot. She's known for serving the best schnitzel in Las Vegas and prepares authentic German recipes that rival the finest restaurants of Berlin. Silvia is the straw that stirs the German-American Social Club of Nevada. She was queen of Maifest and Oktoberfest for eight years, serves as trustee and heads up the club rental and member welcome committees. For Silvia, the German-American Club is everything. "It's home away from home," she said. Silvia hosts the LV German Show every Sunday at 10 a.m. on KSHP 1400 AM radio, playing music and sharing stories about her homeland.

German tradition predicts new year

Jon Shogren uses a propane torch to melt a piece of lead, which is then poured into an adjacent bowl of cold water, transforming the metal into a unique shape that determines your fate for the coming year, according to the German tradition Bleigiessen. Beverly Long was first in line to give it a shot at the Good Luck dinner in January. Some customs use wax instead of lead or tin, but we prefer to play with fire. Of course, interpretation of the shape is open to debate, and if you don't like the shape you get, you can always line up for another melt.

German club hot spot for cool jazz

If you're looking for cool jazz in Las Vegas, the German-American Club is the hot spot every Tuesday from 6-9 p.m. We're celebrating the 5th anniversary of the "Class Act" vintage jazz jam during the month of February. Marsha K hosts the session with her husband, bassist Norm Ross, and talented guitarist Bobby Lee Howard. Guest musicians stop in regularly, including keyboardists Doug Taylor, Larry Millonzi and Howie Gold, drummer Santo Savino and several horn players. Admission is $2 for members; $5 for guests. Affordable ($6) nosh is served by member volunteers, when they're available. Marsha also brings in the Jimmy Wilkins Tribute Jazz Orchestra led by Tom Hall on the first Sunday of each month with the next scheduled concert March 3 due to the Super Bowl party.

Gene Hickman wins the award for best-dressed member at the German-American Club's Christmas party in December. Making his first foray into cooking for Saturday dinners, he'll be serving up Russian beef stroganoff on Feb. 23. Don't miss it.

Golf event for paralyzed vets

Dan Kaminski, president of Paralyzed Veterans of Nevada, and Dominic Cirino, sports director (pictured above), spoke about the nonprofit organization's mission and programs at a dinner in January. The German-American Club is hosting a charity golf tournament Feb. 2 at Durango Hills Golf Course to benefit Paralyzed Veterans of Nevada. Sign-in is 7:30 a.m.; shotgun start at 8:30 a.m. Awards and fundraiser will follow at the club, with ribs cooked by the golf group. Doors open at 4 p.m. The club has also set up a collection box for donations to Paralyzed Veterans of Nevada.

Sunshine report

Kathy Mead had surgery and is doing rehabilitation therapy. We all wish her well and hope to see her soon at the club.

Ron Taschner is finally out of rehab and doing fine. Hans Schwob is also doing fine. All of us at the German club hope to see them back soon at the club.

Your Sunshine girl,
Rita Taschner
