President's Letter

Hi Fellow Members;

Fellow members, I had a discussion recently about what we expect from our members. After some thought I've come to the conclusion that good members pay their dues on time, volunteer when they can, and participate in club functions. But really, with almost 300 members, if everybody visited the club for dinner once per month every month, we would have a much stronger club financially and socially.

In order to promote our club and Saturday dinners, I'm announcing a Saturday Night Dinner Club! Visit the club 12 times from September thru August of next year and we'll buy you a dinner on the house! Starting in September, when you come to dinner, we'll stamp the back of your membership card. When you reach 12, dinner is on the club with the exception of Christmas or Bavarian night.

I've also noticed that because of our seating arrangements, we end up with a lot of people sitting by themselves. So, beginning in September, we are changing our seating arrangement to German family style so we can all sit together! This has worked out very well at our Heimatabend dinners. We will also play traditional German music from 4-6pm.

It's also come to my attention that some of our members have a hard time traveling to and from the club. If you need a ride to dinner, call me at 702-341-1031, and I'll try to arrange a ride. I'm excited about these changes and I'm sure they will improve our Saturday night dining experience. See you on Saturday nights!!

Your President,
Steve Oldham

Update on our Laughlin golf tournament:

The Avi Hotel has only a few telephone numbers for making room reservations and all seem to be very busy.

I made my reservations using 800-284-2946. The agents were very friendly. Make sure to mention that you are with the German-American Golf group to get the $49.99 per room per night discounted price.

Don't forget our Friday And Sunday golf outings to sharpen our game.
