About the club

Our purpose is to educate and preserve German traditions, culture, and heritage and to regularly meet in friendship, welcoming both German and non-German speaking individuals. Whether you are a native German or of German heritage or just love everything German, come celebrate your German spirit with us at the German-American Social Club of Nevada. We welcome visitors to our private club. Your first three visits without being a member are free. We are always looking for fresh faces and new ideas and welcome new memberships! For more info, go to <http://www.germanamericanclubnv.com/>

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Happy New Year to all our members. I swear, the older I get, the faster the years go by. Doubt I'm the only one. We made it through the holidays, and I'd like to thank our board and club members who so generously donated their time, materials, food, cooking and everything in between to make our Christmas party a success. Kudos to all!

Our annual Good Luck dinner is Saturday, Jan. 7. With the club closed over Christmas and New Year's, as a courtesy, please call in your reservation by Wednesday, Jan. 4.

We're jump-starting 2023 with a fundraiser on Jan. 22 for Silvia's German Show, broadcast each Sunday from 10 a.m. to noon on KSHP AM 1400 radio, and KSHP.com. Silvia has hosted more than 1,100 broadcasts during the past 20 years. Let's keep our German culture alive and going over the airways and the web and support this event.

Tuesday Bluesday features live music by Monk and the Po' Boys on Jan. 17, 6-9 p.m. Always a good vibe!

Cheers to the golf group! They raised $366 for the club from liquor sales at the Laughlin memorial golf gala.

Remember, dinner reservations (702-201-1448) MUST be made by the Wednesday prior. See you at the club!

Your president,

Gene Hickman

You never know who you might catch on stage at the German-American Club! Playing his Gibson in soul-capturing style, guest guitarist Al Ek joined Monk and the Po' Boys for Tuesday Bluesday in December. Originally from Milwaukee, Al came to Las Vegas to perform in Legends of Concert, formerly at the Stratosphere. He founded the Shuffle-Aires, a prominent Milwaukee and Las Vegas blues band, with his wife, Mary, on bass, and Milwaukee legend Junior Brantley on keyboards. Don't miss the next session of Tuesday Bluesday Jan. 17, 6-9 p.m.

Fundraiser set for German Show

Come to the German-American Club on Sunday, Jan. 22, 3 p.m., to support our lady of royalty, Silvia Brunn, in a fundraiser for her German Show. Broadcast each Sunday from 10 a.m. to noon on KSHP 1400 AM Radio and www.KSHP.com, the German Show brings traditional German music to Las Vegas airwaves, conversation with callers, Bundesliga soccer scores reported by Henrietta and a report on German-American Club activities by Gene. Silvia has hosted more than 1,100 shows during the past 20 years. Coffee and cake and a snack buffet will be served at the fundraiser, and a silent auction will be held. With local entertainment, the afternoon promises to be a fun event. Silvia has held many fundraisers for the German Show at the club, including Picnic with Andy, but was unable to bring singers from Germany because of the COVID pandemic. The contribution will be $15. Call Silvia at 702-772-1517 by Jan. 17 to reserve a spot.

Germans like to predict what will happen in the coming year, and they have an interesting way of doing that: Bleigiessen (lead pouring). A piece of lead is heated over a candle until it melts and then quickly tossed into cold water. Its unique "frozen" shape is interpreted to predict that person's fate for the new year. Of course, the interpretation is always open to debate, so if you don't like the shape you get, or it's too ambiguous, you can always try another one.
