PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Our cooks, bartenders, volunteers, dancers and beer glasses will be working overtime this month to celebrate both the Oktoberfest season and Halloween. We have exciting festivities occurring every Saturday this month and want to see you there.

Oktoberfest in downtown Las Vegas on Oct. 7: In partnership with the City of Las Vegas, this will be our biggest Oktoberfest event of the month. We have an expanded food menu this year and German-style brews available from Big Dogs Brewery and Tenaya Creek. There will be music from the Dummkopfs, Alphorn Trio and Hubert Gall on the accordion, along with traditional German dancing from Las Vegas Bavarians.

Oktoberfest at the club on Oct. 14 and Oct. 21: Two additional Oktoberfest events will be held at the club. We will be offering bratwurst, sausage, and beer along with a special menu item for each night. Ingrid will be frying up schnitzel for the event on the 14th and TJ will be making Frikadellen with pommes frites on the 21st. Music will be provided by the Ginger Snaps and dancing by Las Vegas Bavarian Dance Group for both evenings.

Vagabond Halloween Party on Oct. 28: Wear your best Halloween outfit and enter our costume competition. Prizes, entertainment and decorations provided by the Las Vegas Vagabonds.

Your President,

Leanne Crabtree

GOLF TOURNAMENT

We played our annual Memorial Golf Tournament in Laughlin on Sept. 29-30. Thanks to everyone for making the tournament a huge success. We had close to 90 golfers and gallery this year.

Bill Bowman and Rick Clark would have been proud to see this many people watch as nine teams competed for the Bowman-Clark trophy.

We met Friday in the Phoenix room on the 26th floor of the Edgewater hotel. Everyone was welcome to share in the weekend festivities, which included a free barbecue at the golf course and entertainment by Howie Gold spinning '50s music.

We played a "fifth man" scramble at the Chaparral Country Club in Bullhead City. Each team was assigned a player to putt for memorial honorees one time if needed on each green. Look for results in the November newsletter.

Your Golf President,

Steve Oldham

Prost!

Put on your dirndl and lederhosen, grab your beer stein and polka on down to Historic Fifth Street School, 401 S. Fourth St., for the ninth annual Oktoberfest celebration Saturday, Oct. 7, from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Dig into an affordable menu of traditional German fare including brats and sauerkraut, potato pancakes and strudel. Top it off with a cold pint of German beer (Warsteiner dunkel is highly recommended), or a glass of wine from the Rhine.

Stick around for a rousing performance of German folk music by the Dummkopfs, Alphorn Trio and accordion virtuoso Hubert Gall. Check out the fancy footwork of the Las Vegas Bavarian Dancers.

Oktoberfest is presented by the City of Las Vegas and the German-American Social Club of Nevada.

If you miss the downtown event, or haven't had your fill, come down to the club at 1110 E. Lake Mead Blvd. for Oktoberfest fun on Oct. 14 and 21, from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. The menu is scrumptious, drinks are cheap and we've got the Ginger Snaps putting their own twist on German music.
