About the club

Our purpose is to educate and preserve German traditions, culture and heritage and to regularly meet in friendship, welcoming both German and non-German speaking individuals. Whether you are a native German or of German heritage or just love everything German, come celebrate your German spirit with us at the German-American Social Club of Nevada. We welcome visitors to our private club. Your first three visits without being a member are free. We are always looking for fresh faces and new ideas and welcome new memberships! ## PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Coming into March, the weather should be getting better. It seems that it has been a lot colder than normal. March also has a couple of events coming up that should be fun.

On March 19, we will be having our traditional St. Patrick's Day corned beef and cabbage dinner, which has always been a club favorite.

A charity fundraiser dinner for Path 4 Paws animal rescue is slated for March 26. We did a couple of these a few years ago and they were a fantastic success. I hope this goes as well.

There will be a tap takeover on Friday, March 25. The rep from the local brewery will be there. We are having special sale on our featured beer: buy the glass for $25 and get free refills. This will be a good social event to get to know people and try a new beer.

The Path 4 Paws rep will also be there. If you have any old blankets, sheets or towels you want to get rid of, please bring them in. We really need bedding for our kennels.

Tuesday Bluesday, featuring Las Vegas blues band Monk and the Po' Boys, went well. I would like to continue that as a monthly event. If you missed the last one, come on in. It turned out to be a great evening.

Your president,

Mark Cushman

Member Profile: Kerri Clark

Kerri Clark, 30-year member of the German-American Club, enjoys a “Mary Ellen,” vodka and soda with lime, fondly named after her mother. A former pro golfer, Kerri was co-founder of the club’s golf group.

Club always in need of volunteers

The German-American Club needs volunteers. No experience or special skills are required. We need cooks, kitchen helpers, servers, bartenders, cleaning crews, community service supervisors, launderers, cashiers and more. Can't do physical work? We also need members willing to call other members to check in with them, find out how they're doing and let them know what's going on at the club. Call Christina Gibson at 702-235-7797 if you can help in any way.

Name: Kerri Clark

Age: 58

Hometown: Las Vegas

Education: Rancho High School; Weber State University

Occupation: Instructor at Wildhorse Golf Academy and Las Vegas Women’s Golf Schools

Family: Mother, Mary Ellen; father, Jerry (deceased); brother, Rick (deceased)

In Las Vegas since: 1963

Club member since: 1992

Kerri Clark sits proudly atop what may be considered her legacy as 2004-2005 president of the German-American Club, those 10 endearing bar stools that fostered outrageous late-night into early-morning drunkenness at Bernie’s Bar. She acquired them at a discount of about $100 each, and they stand today as a testament to their durability, having supported tons of weighty Germans over the years. Born and raised in Las Vegas, Kerri parlayed her athleticism at Rancho High into a golf scholarship at Weber State University, later earning a spot on the LPGA tour and women’s European tour. Even with physical limitations that come with age, she remains the club’s top golfer, attests fellow golfer Alex Kraus. “Bill Bowman was president when I started. He found out I was a professional golfer and was all over it,” Kerri says. “I walked on water with him. So, he said let’s get a golf group together.” The Bowman-Clark memorial golf trophy was named in honor of Bill Bowman and Rick Clark, Kerri’s late brother. Kerri was also vice president and member-at-large for the club, and she spent quite a few years behind the bar when the club was open seven days a week. “Older members would come in and I loved talking to the old guys about Germany. I was young then and they liked having a girl behind the bar. They were just fun to talk to.” Kerri brought her mother, Mary Ellen, to the club one night and wanted to roll the dice for drinks, but she had to be a member. “I said, ‘How much?’ I joined to roll the dice and I’ve been a member ever since. The key thing is my mom and dad loved this club, and so do I.”

If you missed the February launch of Tuesday Bluesday at the German-American Club, where Monk and the Po' Boys, pictured at left, appeased the crowd with three hours of toe-tapping, down-home blues, don't sweat it. The band returns Tuesday, March 22, 6-9 p.m., for an encore performance. Bring your friends. Admission is free. Drinks and food available for purchase.

Schutzen, dance practice to resume

The Schutzen group will practice at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 5, at the club. If you are interested in seeing what we are about, please come visit or contact Art at 702-335-0690.

The dance group will practice every Wednesday, 7-9 p.m., at the club. If you would like to see what we're about, come visit.

Documentary to 'unshackle minds'

Everyone has the right to learn the truth. Please share this documentary with all Germans but also everyone else who has an open mind to learn the truth. This could change the world. We need to hold people accountable for what has been done to the Germans of the world. Our guilt sits deep, and it needs to stop. We should be allowed to be proud of our culture and our undeniable qualities. Thank you for helping to spread this documentary.
